Cloudbase Paragliding's
26th
Annual Alpine Tour

It is the 26th tour !!!! Come celebrate with us!

This year's tour will run from 23rd July to the 12th August 2023.

Yes, it's a whole three weeks, but you can join us for only one, two, or all three regions of the tour.
This year we have a slight change and will do two weeks in Austria and then a week in Italy.

Our all-inclusive* rate in Euro's means there will be no nasty surprises and you can fine-tune your budget.

Over the years we have streamlined our tour to give you maximum airtime, opportunity to relax, and if you'd like to do the tourist route, we can arrange this too.

Our tried and tested formula of staying in a region for at least five days means that you can join us at any stage of the tour via Inter-City trains from most major airports.

We are starting the tour in Achensee in Austria for a warm up day's flying followed by the SIV course, we will then move across the valley to Stubai and then head to stunning Bassano Italy.

All areas offer great flying for all levels of experience, and Jan and Khobi are there to guide and help you with advice and years of knowledge.

Achensee

We arrive in Austria on the 23rd July, and we will be running the SIV course from the 24th – 26th July in Achensee, with Ekki, Cordula and Stefan. Make sure you pack your cossi for a lunch time dip. We will be staying in Achensee at the hotel near the cable car and school to make travelling easier.

The SIV course will finish on Wednesday, and we will spend the next two days in Achensee doing some free flying ,and maybe some hike and fly's for the energetic.

Stubai

The Elfer launch

After Achensee we will head across the valley to Stubai our home for the week is in a spacious house with, a lovely garden and a view of the Elfer launch and flying arena.

Launch at Kruezejoch

Evening flying from the Elfer which stays open till 9pm on special occasions.

We leave Stubai for Italy on the morning of the 5th August.

BASSANO

Monte Grappa Launch

Our destination is Bassano in the foothills of the Alps, with Venice only 70km away.

Here we stay in a typical Italian Albergo with the famous Monte Grappa a 20-minute drive up those narrow windy roads!

There are another four launch sites close by to choose from, all with good XC potential. The famous town of Bassano is a hit with tourists and a must see, as well as a trip to Venice.
